

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

FRANKFORT, JUNE 5, 1886.

Rev. G. F. Bagby will occupy the pulpit of the Southern Presbyterian Church to-morrow morning and evening.

Martin Bros. are having quite a large sale for McCormick's machines, having sold in the last few weeks over twenty of them.

Mrs. Elvira T. Skillman, sister of Messrs. R. B. and C. E. Taylor, of this city, died at her home in New Orleans on Friday of last week.

All those afflicted with piles and kindred diseases should bear in mind that Dr. W. I. Kelley, of Cincinnati, is at the Capital Hotel to-day.

Mr. L. A. Trumbo, of this county, recently returned from Texas, and brought with him five horned frogs. He has our thanks for one of the number.

Mr. A. H. Waggener, the Broadway street grocer, now has a handsome new delivery wagon, which was built for him by Messrs. Kernan & Wolf, on upper Main street.

Dr. W. H. Harris, the Electro-therapist, who has been a resident of this city for the past six years, left Sunday afternoon for Grayson Springs, where he will have charge of the sanitarium.

The annual jug breaking of the Mission Band took place at the Christian Church, Wednesday evening, with the usual interesting ceremonies. The amount realized from the jugs was $153 and some cents.

The ROUNDABOUT office is indebted to Mr. H. J. Hyde, the St. Clair street fruit dealer, for a waiter of delicious strawberries and cherries sent over on Wednesday afternoon, which were enjoyed by all hands and the devil.

Our friend, W. Leslie Collins, Esq., is dealing largely in thoroughbreds of late. He is the owner of a yearling colt, full brother to the great race horse Bob Miles, and will enter him in all the prominent fixed events to be run for in 1888.

The Yeoman office building and material have been advertised for sale by W. C. Herndon, Esq., Special Commissioner, on the 21st inst. It is one of the finest and best arranged printing offices in the State, and offers a fine opportunity for some gentleman of means to invest his capital to advantage.

The losses by fire recently at Forks of Elkhorn (James Gallihue's residence) and at Hatton station (Jno. A. Bell's Depot) were settled last week by the Prescott Ins. Co., of Boston, and the Kenton Ins. Co., of Ky., through Chas. F. Exum's agency, Main street, opposite engine house.

The following ladies of the Methodist Church will furnish articles for the exchange to-day: Mrs. G. C. Kelly, Mrs. H. R. Williams, Mrs. Russell Rodman, Mrs. P. B. Hunt, Mrs. J. B. Lewis, Mrs. Jason M. Case, Mrs. M. J. Kelly, Mrs. James N. Miles, Misses Lena Coke, Minnie Cain, Nellie Hughes, Martha Crumbaugh and Mrs. Andrew Cain. The exchange will be held at the usual place, the Singer Sewing Machine office, corner of Main and Ann streets.

Mrs. N. I. McDaniel and Mrs. Wm. Hammond, of Belle Point, were riding along the Boulevard yesterday afternoon, in a spring wagon, near the Railroad Bridge, when the switch engine came along, and the ladies stopped their horse and Mrs. McDaniel got out to him, but the animal became frightened, and pulling away from her backed over the river bank, carrying down the wagon, with Mrs. Hammond in it, into the river. The horse was drowned, wagon lost, and Mrs. Hammond came near being drowned, but Mr. Ed. Grant, the fireman, jumped from the engine, ran down the bank, plunged in the water and rescued her from her dangerous predicament. She was badly hurt, in going down the river bank, and had gone under the water once before Mr. Grant reached her, and was lying in a critical condition at the time we closed our forms last night. All honor to the brave boy, Ed. Grant.

Cornice Poles 30 cents each at R. Rogers.

Backache, stitches in the side, inflammation and soreness of the bowels are, symptoms of a disordered state of the digestive and assimilative organs, which can be corrected by use of Ayer's Cathartic Pills. As dinner pills, and aids to digestion, they have no equal. They cure constipation.

The greatest musical event of the season will take place on Tuesday evening, June 15th, at the Opera House. On that occasion the celebrated opera of Mikado will be presented by Prof. Wayland Graham's music class, under his direction. The costumes of the performers will be gorgeous, the decorations beautiful, and a large number of the most wonderful fans will be displayed. The following is the cast of characters in the opera: no better one could be gotten up in the city:

The Mikado of Japan,	Harry Graham.
Nanki-Poo (His son, disguised as a wandering minstrel and in love with Yum-Yum)	Tom Brislan.
Koko (Lord High Executioner of Japan)	Frank Hutchison.
Poo-Bah (Lord High Everything Else)	Mat Fahy.

Buckley has a full line of glass jars cheaper than any other house in the city.

Cleveland has his Bride but Dick Ferguson has beyond a doubt the best five cent Havana cigars in the city. Go and try them.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is a highly concentrated extract of Sarsaparilla and other blood purifying roots, combined with Iodide of Potassium and Iron. Its control over scrofulous diseases is unequalled by any other medicine.

HARVIELAND, KY., June 2d, 1886.

Editor Roundabout:
The friends of Mr. B. F. Webber in this neighborhood are indignant about the report of his difficulty with Mr. Hundley published in the last issue of your paper. According to that account Mr. Hundley was attacked without provocation and used his knife only while in imminent danger of losing his life. We all know, Mr. Editor, that even editors are sometimes imposed upon, and that one-sided reports creep into newspapers sometimes for the purpose of influencing courts and juries, without fault on the part of the proprietor.

In order to correct the false impression which has been made about the matter, at the instance of his family, who are among the best people of this community, your correspondent visited the wounded man and obtained the following statement, which is sustained by the evidence of two other witnesses:

"I, with another gentleman, went to the stable kept by Hundley, and asked for transportation to Harvieland. He said he would charge $3.00 for sending us out. I told him that I had only paid $1.00 before. He asked who sent me, and I said Will. Lewis. He said 'By G— Lewis is not keeping the stable now.' I said to my companion that we would walk, and started away, but came back and sat on the steps opposite the stable while my friend went to Frankfort for a vehicle. While I was sitting there quietly waiting, Hundley came over and said something I can't now remember, and I got off the steps, but did not strike him or attempt to. Just then he ducked his head and ran against me, and at the same time struck me with a knife which he had kept concealed till then. He kept cutting me and I knocked him down. He cut me while holding on to me and never cut me after I struck him. He cut me four times and my clothing in ten places. He sought the quarrel and attacked me first and any other statement is erroneous. I was drinking some, but was not quarrelsome or noisy. This is my first trouble of any kind, and I am 30 years of age."

Our information in regard to the above matter was obtained from what we believed to be a reliable source, and we endeavored to give it as we received it. The examining trial of Hundley, who did the cutting, has been postponed until Monday week.

He hadn't attended divine services for a long time, and when they reached the church he attempted to enter by the side door.

"What are you doing, John," inquired his wife; "that is the side door."

"Certainly," he replied, "it's Sunday, isn't it? The front door is locked and—oh—" suddenly interrupting himself—"oh, of course, certainly, what am I thinking about? I was under the impression that—that—"

"Sh! that's enough," said his wife, and then she led him into church.
